WEEK 9

Two Storm Teams Advance to D1 Semi-Final Games as Jr. Pee Wee and Jr. Midget Navy Fall Short.

Pee Wee Navy and Cadets will play this week on the road with a bid to play on November 15th at Sun Devil Stadium on the line.

The #3 seeded Pee Wee Navy team rolled to a 53-6 win over the #6 seed Trojans. Navy will be looking to avenge a Week 2 loss to the Bobcats when they travel to Mesa this Saturday.

The Cadets are peaking at the right time. Seeded #7, the Cadets upset the #2 Trojans on the road 26-14. With the game on the line, a pick 6 by Chris Capellini sealed the victory for the Storm. The Cadets travel to the west valley to take on the Ducks in another Week 2 rematch. The improving Cadets hope to better the 26-6 outcome of their last meeting.

The #4 Jr. Pee Wee team lost a hard fought game at home, 12-6 to #5 Dawgs, cutting their season short. With all 4 top seeds dropping contests on Saturday, the Jr. Pee Wee Division is wide open. Good Luck Dawgs!

Jr. Midget Navy also found it hard to get their offense on the field, dropping their game on the road to the #3 Toros 53-14. Scoring on 2 of their 4 possessions wasn't enough as the Toros ate up the clock in each of their scoring drives.

Jr. Midget Silver ended their season with a Bowl game against the Prospectors at home. Silver lost an exciting game, but were able to move the ball and make some great defensive plays.

Pee Wee Silver took the week off and will play the D2 Championship at Pinnacle High School at 10am against the Prospectors.
