WEEK 7

Pee Wee Silver, Jr. Midget Navy Fight Back to .500 and Jr. Midget Navy Builds a Case for Postseason Play

Storm teams went 3-2 on the road, this week, with only the Cadets and 14U teams dropping their games to tough competition.

Pee Wee Silver had no trouble getting up for the Gladiators after a week off, pitching a shut out, 13-0 in a game that found the Storm oversized but not overmatched.

Pee Wee Navy traveled to Williams Field, concluding the regular season with a win. With the win, they move to 4-2 in power point games, which should be good enough for a playoff bid.

Jr. Midget Navy dominated the Aztecs 36-8, hoping to close out the season this week with a win to earn a playoff spot.

Jr. Midget Silver played a huge middle school team out of Flagstaff, keeping it close but slipping at the end, 20-26. The Silver team closes out the Storm regular season home schedule this Saturday with a 4pm start against the Gladiators.

14U found the top rated Typhoons too much, but were able to keep it close, scoring twice in a 27-14 loss.

The Incas were forced to forfeit their game against our Jr. Pee Wee's, but the game was still played, and the Incas held their own. 2 turnovers inside the 5 yard line kept the score close, with the Storm winning 6-0. A win this week against the Jaguars will give the Storm the top seed in the Division Playoffs.
